BEYOND REASON: WHERE THE MIND ENDS AND THE HEART BEGINS (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A split second reaction, an attempt only to stop him, and Cady is the prime suspect in a murder investigation. Cady was alone and scared when Mickey Donovan rescued her from the streets of Los Angeles. He promised her a record deal and brought her back to live in his Hollywood mansion. It's been a year, and now he expects her to pay back her debt, but she can't. The price is too high. She only meant to make him stop. Did she kill him? Detective Jake Malone has been investigating Mickey Donovan and his empire that supplies drugs and prostitutes to some of L. A.'s finest citizens. This turn of events could be the break that he's been looking for. But when he storms the house and finds that the prime suspect is Cady, the course of his actions is altered. The connection he feels with her rocks him to his core. She turns him inside-out; his cop sense cannot control the desires of his heart. That, and his body is betraying all common sense and driving him beyond all reason. Cady is stopped immediately by the force of Jake's presence. He's a cop. He's here to investigate the murder. The way he looks at her, his eyes capture her, they steal her breath and make her body desire things that she is unfamiliar with. She wants to go to him, but will he arrest her? Or is there something more? What is she feeling? Love? Lust? Guilt? Maybe all three.
